WORDS FROM THE PASTOR

This has been a very stressful week in many areas. Thankfully yesterday was full of victories, so it all ended well. With this being a holiday weekend, we are aware of some who are vacationing. So we are especially happy to see you here, making worship at Mt. Sylvania part of your weekend plans.

I heard from Jim Mattingly yesterday. They will be in our area the two weeks or so around the time of our local association, which is October 13th. They are going to be with us the Wednesday night before. Let's begin to talk it up now, and make that Wednesday night something really special. The Mattingly Family is a gifted family and we are fortunate that they always let us know when they are in the area. The Sibleys are going to be at Spring Hill on Wednesday night September 28th. This is almost like the Alaskan Cruise is coming to Northeast Texas. The Sibleys are from south Louisiana and are on a personal mission to deliver aid. At Spring Hill, they are going to stop long enough to put on a show. Pray for all these folk as they travel in ministry.

REVIVAL?

One of the items discussed in the last business meeting was Mt. Sylvania's annual fall revival. It was decided to take a little more time to pray about whom God chooses as the evangelist. There are so many worthy preachers/pastors, which one has the message that Mt. Sylvania needs at this time?

WE CAN HELP

The storeroom at TBI is in immediate need of some restocking. The shelves are almost bare. The Hopewell District Ladies do a pounding in the October meeting. However, students are in need of some help before then. Paper goods, laundry soap, coffee and non-perishable foods would help right now.

Also, Spring Hill is gathering items for those misplaced in the Louisiana flood. If you would like to participate, please bring items before September 28. If you are interested in participating, Bro. John Wisener put a post directly to my Facebook page. Barbara Sibley's comment to that post has a long list. Bro. Wisener will pick up the donations.
