WORDS FROM THE PASTOR

We are happy to have visiting with us today, Bro. Wayne Cason, representing The Gideons International (Mt. Pleasant, TX Camp). This has been an annual report at Mt. Sylvania. We appreciate the work that they do in the distribution of Scriptures, worldwide. We do not take funds from our general treasury to support their work. We will have an offering plate at the back at the end of the service this morning. You can, of course, make a donation at any time throughout the year using the material in the window at the back of the church.

As most of you are aware, Larry, my only brother was a guest in our home this week. He arrived safely back in Victoria Saturday afternoon. I appreciate each one of you who treated him warmly. He enjoyed his visit and the time he spent with those of you who were his friends when he pastored at Liberty.

We are happy that Spring Hill has decided to be a gathering point of supplies for those suffering in Louisiana. Bro. Ken and Barbara Sibley are working hard in this relief effort. They spend much of their time ministering to children through our sister churches around the world.
